RECALCULATING:
A New Route to Reach Young People
with Joe Tremblay

MONDAY, SEPT. 23, 2019, 7 PM

Feeling like the Good News only resonates with Baby Boomers or older folks these days? Why are churches missing the younger generations? Why is "NONE" the fastest growing 'faith' group in the U.S.?

HOW TO SPEAK GenXYZ

As a father of teenagers and an evangelization point person for the Diocese of Green Bay, Joe Tremblay has discovered answers and insights that can help us and our Church change the direction of these troubling trends. If you care about a younger someone who has rejected faith or the Church, or if you work in youth or young adult ministry, this is a program you don't want to miss!

IN JOY & SORROW

With Fr. Bill Swichtenberg

In an attempt to raise our consciousness about what is happening at the southern border of the US, the French artist and photographer JR decided to host a picnic on October 8, 2017, on both sides of the fence between Mexico and the US. JR's idea was to create a table of sorts that stretched from the US to Mexico. The tablecloth was a magnification of a photograph he had taken of the eyes of a Dreamer. Remember that the Dreamers were brought here by their undocumented parents when they were little children and are young adults today in our country, which is the only home they have ever known. One eye of the dreamer was on a table in Tecate, Mexico and the other eye on a tarp in Tecate, California. Hundreds of people showed up for this potluck lunch, while enjoying festive music provided by bands on each side, each playing the same music. If you google French artist JR you may be able to find a photograph of this picnic. It is a photograph that speaks to the human heart.

Each weekend, we Catholic Christians gather at the Table of the Lord to give praise and thanks to God. It is so that all are welcome at this table. We are committed as the Family of God at St. Mary Parish to make sure that we extend warm hospitality toward every person who walks through our church doors. We do not know what he or she is going through. We do not know what brings a new person through our doors. We do not know if their week was a joyful experience or a trying gauntlet. All we know is that we want her or him to feel welcome. By our words and actions, we want to convey that he or she is a beloved child of God, and that our God is all about hope and healing and hospitality.

If we see Jesus in the Bread and Wine transformed into his Body and Blood, and we do not see Jesus in each other, we are missing a critical link that is to happen at every Mass. We are the Body of Christ, and in that Body, there are no distinctions that would separate us from each other. Jesus only sees the divine spark in every person and never singles out or judges people based on color of skin, degree of education, religion, gender, sexual identity, amount of wealth, or documentation or not. Jesus sees every person and, deep in his eyes, which reflect his open heart, can be seen only unconditional love. We have to see each other as Jesus sees each one of us.

The Real Presence of Jesus is in every person. Let us take the time to look carefully and lovingly at each other.

Let's not miss the Real Presence.

Aware of a PEW Research Survey that indicated that only one third of Catholics believe in the Real Presence of Jesus is the consecrated bread and wine, I would also encourage you to see the bread and wine, but to believe in your heart of hearts that you are receiving into your life the Sacrament of Jesus' Most Precious Body and Blood. What appears to be bread and wine are no longer bread and wine as their very substance has been transformed in Jesus' Body and Blood. This Eucharistic Jesus is at the heart of our church and of our universe. Everything holds together in the Risen Lord Jesus. His abiding presence is the heartbeat of our lives and of our universe. Everything and everyone is connected in Jesus.

The Eucharist is not a symbol that points to some deeper reality. The great American author, Flannery O'Connor, reminds us that if the Eucharist is just a symbol, "to hell with it." I am using her words! The Eucharist is the reality that Jesus is present to us in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Jesus gives us his life again and again so that we might share in his eternal life. Every Mass is a celebration in the present moment of Jesus' ongoing unselfish love, a love that was first shown to us from the tree of the cross.

Let's really see Jesus in the Sacrament of his Most Precious Body and Blood! Let us see Jesus in each other! Let us pray for our immigrant sisters and brothers at our border and those who see Jesus in them as they minister to them!

Fr. Bill +

RECALCULATING: A New Route to Reach Young People

with Joe Tremblay

HOW TO SPEAK GenXYZ

Feeling like the Good News only resonates with Baby Boomers or older folks these days? Why are churches missing the younger generations? Why is "NONE" the fastest growing 'faith' group in the U.S.?

As a father of teenagers and an evangelization point person for the Diocese of Green Bay, Joe Tremblay has discovered answers and insights that can help us and our Church change the direction of these troubling trends. If you care about a younger someone who has rejected faith or the Church, or if you work in youth or young adult ministry, this is a program you don't want to miss!

This September program honors the Canonization of John Henry Newman on Oct. 13, 2019 and recognizes the work of Newman Centers.

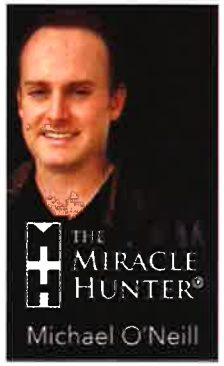
"I sought to hear the voice of God and climbed the topmost steeple, but God declared: "Go down again – I dwell among the people."

MONDAY, OCT. 21, 7 p.m.

The Case for the Supernatural: A Skeptic's Take on Miracles



How did an engineering major from Stanford end up as a world authority on miracles? Michael O'Neill, a.k.a. The Miracle Hunter, says it's only after overcoming great trepidation. "I thought it was mind-boggling that the Church would risk its credibility on some of these wild claims and say some of them are worthy of belief." Now, with years of research invested, O'Neill understands, "When the Church investigates something, it's actually trying to prove there is nothing supernatural there. So when something is declared worthy of belief, established as supernatural, that's a cause for celebration."

With a critical eye and an analytical mind, O'Neill's work, respected by both church and secular audiences, is detailed on his website, MiracleHunter.com, the top online resource on miracles cited in news articles and books worldwide. O'Neill served as a consultant for the National Geographic December 2015 cover story on the Virgin Mary, "The Most Powerful Woman in the World," and was interviewed as the Marian expert on a corresponding television piece for NatGeo Explorer.

When God Comes Calling

MONDAY, NOV. 18, 7 p.m.

For I know the plans I have for you.
Jeremiah 29:11

With Heather Weininger
Wisconsin Right to Life Exec. Director

Ask Heather Weininger if she ever imagined herself where she is today, an active Catholic on the front lines of the country's pro-life effort, and you can expect an emphatic "NEVER!" But God had other plans for the mother from Green Bay who listened to God's call and found a new faith family and a passion for life.

Special introduction by Fr. John Girotti who guided Heather in her conversion to the Catholic faith.

MONDAY, DEC. 9, 7 p.m.

Musical Interlude by the ChamberSingers Choir of the APPLETON BOYCHOIR

Ever heard someone describe a sunset, an inspiring song, or an artwork such as Michelangelo's Pieta as a "religious experience?" It makes sense if you believe the age-old wisdom that God is found in the good, the true and the beautiful. Let the popular and beloved Fr. James Neilson, O.Praem., and the Appleton Boychoir ChamberSingers lift your eyes, ears and hearts to the Heavens. Escape the busy-ness as we celebrate Advent, the great season of anticipating the Coming of Christ, God's ultimate revelation of the Divine.

MONDAY, JAN. 13, 2020, 7 p.m.

Jon Leonetti
presents:

"Your Church Has Too Many Rules" and Other Objections Catholics Need to Confront

"There are not 100 people in the United States who hate the Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they wrongly perceive the Catholic Church to be."

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

The criticisms are all too common: "Your Church has too many rules," "Your God is too boring," "You Catholics worship Mary" ... and on and on.

Join nationally known speaker, radio host and author Jon Leonetti for a deep dive into the real truth and beauty of the Catholic faith. Through prayer, the Sacraments, family life, and the help of Mary and the saints, Catholics encounter Jesus Christ. Only in Him is happiness and wholeness fulfilled.

Good for YOUNG PEOPLE!

Be prepared to laugh, grow, be inspired and grasp how God can and does change lives.

Jon Leonetti's first two books--Mission of the Family and Your God Is Too Boring--are part of Matthew Kelly's Dynamic Catholic Book Program. They, along with his third book--The Art of Getting Over Yourself: And Why You'll Be Happier When You Do—will be for sale.

AUDIENCE FEEDBACK:

"His enthusiasm is contagious and his stories are down to earth and real."

"Nothing short of outstanding. All I can say is 'We have been changed.' "

"The most dynamic speaker I've heard in a long time."

MONDAY, FEB. 3, 7 p.m.

The newest Pivotal Player:

Fulton F. Sheen

"Long before the internet and social media, Fulton Sheen pioneered Catholic evangelization through the media ... as a means to reach far beyond the parish walls."

So begins Bishop Robert Barron's promo of the latest entry in his Pivotal Players blockbuster video series profiling the most influential people in Catholic history. Archbishop Sheen, a beloved TV personality during the 1950s/60s, reached millions via his weekly show, Life is Worth Living. How is it though that Sheen ranks with pillars like Augustine, Aquinas and Catherine of Siena? Find out as we explore this unique and colorful man Pope Francis recently moved one step closer to sainthood.

MONDAY, MARCH 9, 7 p.m.

How All Believers Share in Jesus' Call to Priesthood

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession.

1 Peter 2:9

With Abbot Nicholas Zachariadis

In the wake of the clergy abuse scandals, we've heard some blame placed on clericalism—"the erroneous assumption that the Catholic clergy are spiritually superior to the laity and automatically more important to the Church's mission." Even Pope Francis has taken a stand against it. So is this a Catholic or Roman Catholic issue? And what might we learn from our friends in the Eastern Catholic churches on this hot topic? Join Abbot Nicholas for a night of East Meets West to explore the Eastern concept of "the Priesthood of All Believers."

Abbot Nicholas and the monks of Holy Resurrection Monastery, St. Nazianz, WI, are Eastern Catholics of the Byzantine tradition.

TWO-NIGHT HOLY WEEK EVENT APRIL 6 & 7, 7 p.m.

DIVINE EVIDENCE

MONDAY:

Eucharistic Miracles

Featuring the Vatican's Exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles of the World

TUESDAY:

Sacred Cloths of the Passion

Featuring the Elements of the Passion Exhibit including a relic of the True Cross

Contrary to what popular culture suggests, our FAITH is backed up by both HISTORY and SCIENCE! An amazing amount of historical testimony and documentation, as well as forensic data, supports the major tenets related to the life, death and teachings of Jesus. Richard Bernatchez, an engineer by trade, has dedicated much of his life to researching and sharing some of our faith's most fascinating miracles and relics. Through his efforts, you can see, feel and experience the DIVINE EVIDENCE for yourself!

BONUS! Added viewing times for Elements of the Passion Exhibit & Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit

In addition to before/after the Mon/Tues night presentations, these exhibits will be available to the public beginning Thurs., April 2, as a complement to NEW Passion Play performances at the Xavier Fine Arts Theatre. Details & specific hours for the exhibits, as well as NEWPP tickets (not required for exhibits), are available at www.newpassionplay.org or by calling the Xavier Box Office 920-733-8840.
