Dear Spiritual Family of Saint Mary,

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that Saint Mary Parish has reached its 2025 Bishop's appeal goal of $72,433. Parishioners made gifts totaling $74,798.

Through the Bishop's appeal, struggling families receive compassionate service through Catholic Charities counseling services, ministry formation assists in training deacons, pastoral leaders, and lay ministers, students build a relationship with Jesus through the help of religious education programs and Catholic schools, and much more!

So far this year, more than $6,400,000 has been raised, and more than 22,000 families have come together to change lives throughout northeastern Wisconsin with their support. I would like to extend my gratitude to you and the members of St. Mary Parish for generously supporting the 2025 Bishop's Appeal.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+David L. Ricken
Bishop of Green Bay

ST MARY PARISH - APPLETON // 8.3.2025

WITH FR. BILL SWICHTENBERG

Wednesday (8/6) marks the 80th anniversary of the nuclear bombing of Hiroshima and celebrates the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. It is hard to hold these two events together in our minds and hearts.

Alone with Peter, James and John, Jesus's closest companions, on the mountain top, the disciples really see Jesus. It is true that sometimes we need to step away from the busyness of our lives to rest in Jesus. The divine glory spills forth from Jesus's Sacred Heart, and permeates everything around him. Even his clothing takes on the brightness of the sun. This is the light of love that transfigures every human heart if we but open our hearts to Jesus, allowing his love to soothe our hurts and to inspire our every word and action.

The light of a nuclear bomb blast, blotting out the light of the sun, is a foreshadowing of the darkness that can overtake the human heart. All is fair in war and peace, so they say. In 1945, the dropping of the nuclear bomb over Hiroshima, Japan, on August 6 and then again over Nagasaki on August 9 was seen as the only option to quickly end World War II. But so many innocent lives, men, women, and children were lost on those days.

This is the light of love that transfigures every human heart if we but open our hearts to Jesus, allowing his love to soothe our hurts and to inspire our every word and action.

It is hard to believe that there can be anything like a just war when nuclear weapons are at the disposal of too many nations in the world. The principles of proportionality and the obligation to protect noncombatants are thrown out the window in a nuclear war.

Father Pedro Arrupe, who served as the Superior General of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) from 1965 to 1983, was a young priest in Hiroshima on that fateful August 6th and witnessed the mushroom cloud and the horrific suffering of his Japanese sisters and brothers in the catastrophic aftermath.

He said, "I shall never forget my first sight of what was the result of the atomic bomb: a group of young women, eighteen or twenty years old, clinging to one another as they dragged themselves along the road. One had a blister that almost covered her chest; she had burns across half of her face, and a cut in her scalp caused probably by a falling tile, while great quantities of blood coursed freely down her face. On and on they came, a steady procession numbering some 150,000. This gives some idea of the scene of horror that was Hiroshima. ... We did the only thing that could be done in the presence of such mass slaughter: we fell on our knees and prayed for guidance, as we were destitute of all human help...It is at such times that one feels most a priest, when one knows that in the city there are 50,000 bodies which, unless they are cremated, will cause a terrible plague. There were also some 120,000 wounded to care for. In light of these facts, a priest cannot remain outside the city just to preserve his life. Of course, when one is told that in the city there is a gas that kills, one must be very determined to ignore that fact and go in. And we did." (from Jesuit.org.)

In an address of the Holy Father Pope Francis, delivered at the Nagasaki Atomic Bomb Hypocenter, on November 24, 2019, we find these prophetic words:

One of the deepest longings of the human heart is for security, peace and stability. The possession of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction is not the answer to this desire; indeed they seem always to thwart it. Our world is marked by a perverse dichotomy that tries to defend and ensure stability and peace through a false sense of security sustained by a mentality of fear and mistrust, one that ends up poisoning relationships between peoples and obstructing any form of dialogue.

Here in this city which witnessed the catastrophic humanitarian and environmental consequences of a nuclear attack, our attempts to speak out against the arms race will never be enough. The arms race wastes precious resources that could be better used to benefit the integral development of peoples and to protect the natural environment. In a world where millions of children and families live in inhumane conditions, the money that is squandered and the fortunes made through the manufacture, upgrading, maintenance and sale of ever more destructive weapons, are an affront crying out to heaven.

And at the Peace Memorial in Hiroshima on the same day, Pope Francis declared:

It is my humble desire to be the voice of the voiceless, who witness with concern and anguish the growing tensions of our own time: the unacceptable inequalities and injustices that threaten human coexistence, the grave inability to care for our common home, and the constant outbreak of armed conflict, as if these could guarantee a future of peace.

With deep conviction, I wish once more to declare that the use of atomic energy for purposes of war is today, more than ever, a crime not only against the dignity of human beings but against any possible future for our common home [our earth]. The use of atomic energy for purposes of war is immoral, just as the possessing of nuclear weapons is immoral, as I already said two years ago. We will be judged on this. Future generations will rise to condemn our failure if we spoke of peace but did not act to bring it about among the peoples of the earth. How can we speak of peace even as we build terrifying new weapons of war? How can we speak about peace even as we justify illegitimate actions by speeches filled with discrimination and hate?

Archbishop John Wester of Santa Fe, New Mexico, has been the leading prophetic voice for nuclear disarmament in the US Catholic Church. In the annals of nuclear research, Santa Fe has played a central role, given the presence of the Los Alamos and Sandia nuclear weapons laboratories and the nation's largest repository of nuclear weapons at the Kirtland Air Force Base in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

In a summary of the Archbishop's Pastoral Letter titled "Living in the Light of Christ's Peace: A Conversation on Nuclear Disarmament", Wester reminds us that "Pope Francis has made clear statements about the immorality of possessing nuclear weapons, moving the Church from past conditional acceptance of "deterrence" to the moral imperative of abolition. Instead of just a few hundred nuclear weapons for just deterrence, we have thousands for nuclear warfighting that could destroy God's creation on earth. Moreover, we are robbing the poor and needy with current plans to spend at least $1.7 trillion to "modernize" our nuclear weapons and keep them forever." (taken from Los Angeles Catholic Worker, Jan 2022)

Thanks for taking the time to prayerfully ponder this IN JOY AND SORROW.

Let us pray:

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

Fr. Bill +
